NOTES

The body of this Catalogue is divided into three main categories:

- (1) A comprehensive list of Long Play 33 $\frac{1}{3}$ r.p.m. Records
- (2) A list of 7-inch Standard and Extended Play 45 r.p.m. Records
- (3) A General Alphabetical List of Standard 78 r.p.m. Records

LONG PLAY RECORDS—These are grouped under three genre headings, Classical, Recitals and Popular. The Classical recordings are listed under the names of the composers. Where more than one composer's music appears on the same record, the record will be found under each of the composers concerned. The Recital Section is confined to those classical Long Play Records which, by virtue of the varied nature of the material employed, defy specific classification by composer. The Popular Section combines an alphabetical listing by the collective title given to certain records, together with the names of popular recording artists.

45 R.P.M. RECORDS—7-inch Standard and Extended Play 45 r.p.m. records will be found grouped together and listed alphabetically under the name of the artist. Extended Play Records can easily be identified by the initials EP beneath the number.

78 R.P.M. RECORDS—This consists of a comprehensive Alphabetical List, embracing the General and Societies 78 r.p.m. issues. A system of copious cross-indexing provides the reader with more than one opportunity of tracing a record. It is generally to be found under both the Title and Artist, and often under Group (genre) headings, as well as under the Composer.

Under important Group headings such as CONCERTOS, SYMPHONIES, etc., full particulars of the works are assembled in the order of the Composers. Other Group headings give lists of titles to which reference can be made.

Titles will be found in their alphabetical order, one title only being given. To find what is on the other side, it is only necessary to turn to the name of the Artist, whose records are given in numerical order and in alphabetical series of record label categories.

ABBREVIATIONS—A list of abbreviations for Dance Records will be found at the beginning of that section in the 78 r.p.m. General Alphabetical list.

ACOUSTIC RECORDINGS (Pre-electric 78 r.p.m.) can be distinguished by the light-face type used for the Catalogue Number.

AUTOMATIC COUPLINGS—With few exceptions, works occupying three or more double-sided 78 r.p.m. records are available coupled in special sequence for use with "His Master's Voice" Automatic Record-changing Instruments.

Certain sets consisting of TWO 78 R.P.M. RECORDS (four sides) that require to be played in sequence and which were issued on and after July, 1950, are only available in Automatic Couplings.

DELETIONS—In order to give customers notice of those “His Master’s Voice” records which it is intended to withdraw from the next catalogue, the sign ● has been placed against such records in this catalogue. Records so marked will cease to be supplied by us after 31st January, 1955, although they might still be obtainable from record dealers’ stocks.

Those records marked ●● are being withdrawn from the Home market on 31st January 1955 but will be retained for the Overseas markets.

FILM MUSIC—Records of songs, etc., from Films are only taken from the actual sound-track of the film when the fact is stated specifically. A list of records containing FILM MUSIC will be found under that title in the 78 r.p.m. General Alphabetical List.

PLAYING SPEED—This Catalogue contains details of 33½ r.p.m. Long Play, 7-inch Standard and Extended Play 45 r.p.m. and 78 r.p.m. Records. “His Master’s Voice” Records must be played at the speed indicated on the label.

VOCAL TITLES—are sung in the language in which the title is given and orchestrally accompanied unless otherwise stated.

SUGGESTIONS—Once again the Editor wishes to thank the numerous friends for their helpful suggestions, many of which have been incorporated in the present issue. Corrections or suggestions for the further improvement of the next edition will be gladly received by the Catalogue Editor, The Gramophone Company, Ltd., Hayes, Middx., England. Please quote number of page on which queried item occurs.

RECORD TOKENS

A Service that helps you with your gift problems

A gift of gramophone records is always acceptable, but prior to the introduction of our Record Token Service, donors were always reluctant to send records through the post owing to the risk of breakage. Apart from this, the selection of the type of repertoire that might appeal to a friend was a further difficulty.

By the purchase of Record Tokens these problems are solved. All you have to do is to purchase Token Stamps to the value of 5s., 10s., 15s., 20s., 30s., 40s., or 50s., from your "His Master's Voice" Record Dealer together with an attractive Greetings Card, and post them to your friend. The recipient can then visit his own local "His Master's Voice" Record Dealer and exchange the value of the Tokens for any records of the following trademarks—"His Master's Voice," Columbia, Parlophone, Regal-Zonophone and M.G.M.

These Tokens can be purchased or exchanged at any "His Master's Voice" Record Dealer in Great Britain, Northern Ireland and the Channel Islands.

COMPOSERS

THE following table shows the position in musical history of the composers to be found in this catalogue. Details of their compositions will be found in the Recorded Music Section which follows this one. Nationality is indicated in the table below by the use of a small number after the name of each composer, and in cases where a change has been effected, both the country of adoption and the land of birth are shown. Thus, the entry "Handel N5—B8" points out that he was a naturalised Englishman, born in Germany.

PRONUNCIATION GUIDE

THE constant appearance of new names in "His Master's Voice" lists will make this table quite useful. It is not intended to be a complete list, but includes only those names the pronunciation of which is not clear and those difficult to pronounce. The sign (') denotes the syllable to be accented.

Foreign Names and Titles

In most pronouncing dictionaries pronunciations are indicated by symbols such as these: á, ê, í, etc., and unless these signs are thoroughly memorized, the key list must be consulted for each word, which is most inconvenient. We endeavour to do away with this list by means of syllables which indicate the approximate pronunciation at a glance, or by using familiar words—using ah for the sound of a as in barn; oh for o as in boat; and ay for a as in ate: and giving the short sound of e (hen) and i (hit) by eh and ih.

Sounds Difficult to Indicate

It must be understood, however, that it is quite impossible to give exactly the sound of some foreign letters (such as the French e, and n, or the German w). For instance the last syllable of Chopin, indicated pahn—which is about as near as one can get in English phonetics—is pronounced, as someone has said, by commencing to sound ng', but stopping midway, and closing the back of the throat to throw the sound through the nose.

The French e (as in de) might be indicated der, but is pronounced with the lips almost closed. Put your lips in position to pronounce oo, as in food, then try to say deh instead, and you will approach very near it. The German w (as in Wagner) is neither a w nor a v, but just between them. Begin the word as though it was spelled Vahgner, but instead of pressing the teeth firmly against the lower lip, press them very lightly, and then go through the motion of sounding the v.

We have indicated the pronunciations as nearly as possible and they will be found correct enough for practical purposes. But do not pause at each syllable—pronounce the entire word rapidly, without hesitation, putting a decided accent on the syllable marked with the sign "'".

GLOSSARY OF MUSICAL TERMS

A brief list of the musical terms which are used in connection with the compositions available on "His Master's Voice" Records. This glossary has been extracted, by kind permission, from The Radio Times Music Handbook, by PERCY A. SCHOLLES, D.Litt., B.Mus., published for the British Broadcasting Corporation by the Oxford University Press, London.

ABENDLIED. Evening Song.

A CAPELLA. Literally, "in the church style," i.e., conforming to the 16th-century ideal of choralism without instrumental accompaniment (or, at all events, without independent instrumental accompaniment).

ACCELERANDO. Gradually accelerating.

ADAGIO. Slow.

AFFRETANDO. Hurrying.

ALBORADA. A morning song (e.g., under one's lady's window). A fancy title, sometimes applied to short, bright instrumental compositions.

ALBUMBLATT. Literally "Album Leaf"; hence a short instrumental composition of lighter character (such as, in the days when ladies' albums were a society nuisance, kind-hearted composers might be induced to contribute).

ALLA BREVE. A quick kind of what looks like quadruple time, but is to be performed in duple, every two beats being, as it were, thrown into one.

ALLA TEDESCA. In the German style.

ALLARGANDO. Broadening down, i.e., getting slower and slower.

ALLEGRO. Properly, lightly and brightly—though it has nowadays come to mean no more than "quick."

Often used as the title of a piece or movement of this character.

ALLEGRETTO. Rather lively and bright (though it has nowadays come to mean no more than "rather quick").

ALLEMANDE. A piece in dance rhythm, in four-beat time and of moderately lively character. It found a place in the 17th and 18th-century Suites, generally as the opening movement.

ALTO. The high (falsetto) voice of men. Boys singing at this pitch are also called Contralto.

ANDANTE. Literally "going," i.e., neither fast nor slow.

ANDANTINO. At a gently-moving pace. Often used as the title for a piece or movement in this style. It is a matter of dispute whether Andantino means slightly slower or slightly quicker than Andante: composers vary in their use of the word and the performer must use his judgment. In general, we take "Andantino" to mean quicker than "Andante."

ANTHEM. A piece of choral music (with or without solos) intended for performance by the choir—in the Anglican Church at the point indicated in the Prayer Book, and in the other Protestant English-speaking churches at any point indicated by their customs.

APPASSIONATO. Passionately.

ARABESQUE. An ornamental figure in melody (the equivalent in music of the arabesque in linear design or architecture). Or a piece employing melodic figures of this character.

ARIA. An Air or Song, generally on somewhat extended scale, and in form as follows: first part, second part, first part repeated. The songs in 18th century operas and oratorios were generally in this form.

ARPEGGIO PASSAGE. A piece of passage work based on arpeggio playing.

ATONAL. Music possessing no key (i.e., having no perceptible "chief" note, etc.).

AUBADE. A morning song (e.g., under one's lady's window). A fancy title sometimes applied to short, bright instrumental compositions.

BADINERIE. The word means "pleasant fooling" or something of the kind. It is occasionally applied (as once or twice by Bach) to a light, bright, jocular composition.

BAGATELLE. A trifle, a short piece of instrumental music. Beethoven wrote three sets of Bagatellen for piano.

BALLADE. In piano music a romantic type of composition, perhaps rather fancifully intended to suggest the general idea of vivid narration.

BARCAROLLE. A boat-song, or instrumental imitation of such, with a rowing, six-in-a-measure rhythm, or sometimes nine-in-a-measure or twelve-in-a-measure.

BASSO CONTINUO. See Harpsichord

BASSO OSTINATO. Literally, "obstinate bass"; applied to music employing the device of repeating the same short passage of bass over and over again, and rebuilding upon it different superstructures.

BINARY FORM. Two sections, balancing. In the 17th and 18th centuries a great proportion of instrumental music was in this form, e.g., nearly all Bach's dance-style movements (Allemandes, Sarabandes). These begin in one key, and at last reach another, there coming to a momentary cadence or point of rest: then the second section begins in the new key and works back to a final cadence in the original one. If the starting key is major, the half-way will be its dominant: if the starting key is minor, the half-way key will generally be its relative major.

BOLERO. A lively Spanish three-in-a-measure dance. The use of the castanets is a feature.

BRIDGE or BRIDGE PASSAGE. A connecting passage, as between the first and second subjects in "Sonata Form."

CADENCE. The various melodic and harmonic progressions which introduce a feeling of more or less finality, and are therefore suitable to close phrases, sentences, and longer sections of the music, are called Cadences or Closes. They bear various names, as Perfect Cadence (or Full Close), Imperfect Cadence (or Half Close), Plagal Cadence, Interrupted Cadence, etc.

CADENZA. A passage of mere vocal display introduced near the end of a song in older operas, etc. A similar instrumental passage in a Concerto, designed to allow the solo performer to show off. Formerly a mere blank space (so to speak) was left for him by the composer in his score, near the end of a movement, and the soloist was left to fill in as he liked.

CANON. The device of making one melodic strand of music strictly imitate another strand, following it at a distance of time and overlapping it all the way.

CANTABILE. In a singing style.

CANTATA. The word has taken on different meanings at different periods. Its usual meaning to-day is, in effect, an unacted opera or briefer oratorio—in either case with a good deal of chorus work. Many of Bach's Church Cantatas are, in effect, extended Anthems. In the 18th century purely solo cantatas were common. Cantata da Chiesa meant such a work for church use, and Cantata da Camera such a work for Chamber use, i.e., performance in the home.

CANTILENA. A song or something in the song style.

CANZONETTA. A piece with marked melody, i.e., Song without Words style, but most commonly for solo voice or choral body; often a short madrigal.

CAVATINA. A short simple song (not in three parts like the Aria or an instrumental piece in that style). Beethoven, in his String Quartet Op. 130, applies the term to a piece on more extended lines.

CEMBALO. The word is really short for "Clavicembalo," i.e., literally "Keyed Dulcimer," but is applied to the Harpsichord.

CHACONNE. This is, in origin, a dance (three in a measure, slow time), the music framed upon a basso ostinato. The type was taken up into pure instrumental music, and developed in all manner of ways, so that it is now very difficult to frame a precise definition. The most immediately observable and invariable characteristic is the division into even sections of four or eight measures, deriving from the basso ostinato origin.

CHORAL. The traditional German hymn-tune.

CHORAL (or CHORALE) PRELUDE. An organ composition based, in one of many different ways, on one of the traditional hymn-tune melodies, ostensibly as a preparation for the congregation's singing of the hymn.

CHROMATIC SCALE. The scale of nothing but semitones. In a sense, then, there is only one chromatic scale, but it can be begun at any pitch, and is then considered to be the chromatic scale of the note on which it begins.

CODA. A passage added to a piece to make a good ending. From Beethoven onwards it often takes on high importance.

CON AMORE. With love.

CONCERTANTE. This is the adjective corresponding to Concerto, and means "in concert." When it enters into the description of a piece it generally indicates the combination of one or more solo instruments with orchestra.

CONCERTO. Literally a performance "in concert," i.e., any group of instruments playing together is, in this old sense, executing a Concerto.

CONTINUO. See Harpsichord.

CONTRALTO. The lowest voice of women.

COUNTERPOINT. Literally "Many voiced" music, i.e., music which consists of several strands, each with its own melodic interest, and the whole fitting together in an effective combination.

COURANTE. A dance piece in three-in-a-measure time, found as a constituent member of the 18th-century Suite. The Italian style of Courante is simpler than the French style, which has certain rhythmic complexities (mixture of duple and triple time). Some of Bach's Courantes are French, some Italian.

CZARDAS. One of the native dances of Hungary. It has two parts; LASSU the slow melancholy element, and the FRISS, the quick, fiery element, and these are heard in alternation.

DESCANT. An extemporary new melody contrived to go with an existing melody in good counterpoint. The art of so contriving was much cultivated in the 15th, 16th and early 17th centuries. The term is now used more freely; for instance, a hymn tune will be so rearranged that whilst the congregation carry on the proper melody, the trebles of the choir (or a body of them) ramble melodiously above and about it, and this is called Descant, or sometimes Fauxbourdon.

DIAPASON. The Foundation "stops" of the Pipe Organ.

DIATONIC. The major and minor scales are called the Diatonic scales in distinction from the chromatic scale. Intervals and chords made from the material of the diatonic scale in use at the moment are called diatonic intervals and chords, whilst others which draw upon material not in that scale are called chromatic.

DIVERTIMENTO. A light composition, for amusement rather than the good of the soul. Often a fantasia or pot-pourri on popular melodies. In Mozart's day the term was sometimes applied to a Suite of more than the ordinary number of movements.

DOLCE. Sweetly.

DOMINANT. The fifth note of the key (e.g., in key C the note G).

DUMKA. A type of Slavonic folk-ballad music, usually slow and elegaic. Dvořák uses it often for an alternation of quick and slow movement.

ENHARMONICS. See Major Scale.

ENTRIES. See Fugue.

ÉTUDE. A study, i.e., a short solo instrumental piece developing some particular point in technique as an exercise for the player.

FANTASIE. Literally "fancy." Any free-sounding, informal kind of instrumental piece can be so called. The word once implied improvisation, and the thing still often suggests it. Sometimes a string of tunes from an opera, etc., worked up into an instrumental piece is called by this name.

FAUXBOURDON. See Descant.

FORTE. Loudly.

FORTISSIMO. Very loudly.

FUGUE. An "intellectual" type of composition, which may, nevertheless, be also very emotional. Its essential characteristics are: (1) It is purely contrapuntal, i.e., it is a texture of a fixed number of melodic strands, being thus a "fugue in three parts," or a "fugue in four parts," etc. (2) It grows out of one short phrase of melody (Subject) with which it opens. (3) This phrase is first given out by one of the parts (often called "Voices," and so reminding us of the unmistakable choral origin of the type), and then taken up in turn by the other parts until all have entered with it—a variety of key is thus early introduced, since the parts, or "voices," enter alternately in the key of the piece and that of a fifth higher, swaying in this way between the two main keys, tonic and dominant. On the occasion when the subject here appears in the dominant key it is called ANSWER: the device of "subject" and "answer" is obviously a relic of choral origin, the soprano, alto, tenor and bass voices being, in nature, roughly a fifth apart in pitch, and their comfort being thus considered.

FURLANO. A popular old Italian dance, six-in-a-measure.

GALLIARD. A lively dance style, three-in-a-measure, common in 16th-century keyboard music.

GAVOTTE. A dance form in four-in-a-measure time. Sometimes found as one of the constituents of the old Suites. All its phrases begin on the third beat of the measure, otherwise it resembles the Bourrée.

GIGUE. A lively dance form in three, six, nine, or twelve-in-a-measure time, which formed one of the movements in the old Suites.

GLISSANDO. Literally "sliding" or "gliding." On the violin by running a finger along the string; on the piano (rare) by running a finger along the keyboard. A method, then, of playing scale passages.

GOPAK. A lively dance of Little Russia, in two-in-a-measure.

GREGORIAN. A word sometimes used to describe plainsong chanting, from the work done by Gregory (Pope 590-604) in classifying and codifying both this music and the system of modes on which it is based.

HABANERA. A slow Cuban dance which came to be very popular in Spain.

HAMMERKLAVIER. Pianoforte — literally "hammer-key-board," an appropriate name.

HARMONICS. Silvery, flute-like notes, obtained by lightly touching the string at a node of its vibration, instead of fully "stopping" it.

HARPSICHORD. Externally like a grand piano, but sometimes with two manuals and various draw-stops and pedals operating mechanism for varying the tone quality and quantity, etc. The essential is that the strings are plucked by quills, not hammered as in the piano. The Harpsichord was an invariable background to the 17th and early 18th-century orchestras; its "part" printed or written, was usually merely a Figured Bass—a line of bass notes with figures sketchily or completely indicating the chord from which the performer was expected to elaborate his own accompaniment to the other instruments (sometimes, even, an unfigured bass was all that was provided). The Italian word CEMBALO or Clavicembalo is sometimes found for Harpsichord.

HUMORESQUE. A fancy title sometimes attached to an instrumental composition of a humorous or capricious character, usually short.

IMPROMPTU. Properly, a quasi-extemporary short instrumental piece, though the name is as often given to pieces with no suggestion of the extemporary.

INTERMEZZO. The music intended for performance between the acts of a play or opera, but the term is now sometimes applied to a short instrumental composition for independent performance, often (but not always) of a light nature.

JOTA. A northern Spanish dance, rapid, three-in-a-measure, accompanied by the castanets.

KAPELLE. In German countries the Kapelle, or Capelle, of a royal or noble personage, or a high ecclesiastic, was his whole musical force, vocal and instrumental, in church, opera-house, and concert room. The Kapellmeister, or Capellmeister, was its "master" or director. It was part of the duty of such an official to compose for all occasions of the court, etc., which he necessarily often did in a very routine style; hence the word here under definition carries a somewhat contemptuous suggestion, and is usually employed to signify any sort of dull, seriously-intended music. The director of the musical forces of a church was also a Kapellmeister, but it is an error to think that "Kapelle" (though literally translatable "chapel") covers only the musical forces of a religious establishment. A dance band can be so described.

KINDERSTÜCK. Literally "Children's Piece."

KLAVIER. "Keyboard," i.e., to-day the Pianoforte. Also spelt "Clavier." As found in the works of Bach, etc., the word means either Harpsichord or Clavichord, without distinction. The keyboard of the Organ is sometimes spoken of as its "Clavier."

KÖCHEL—See Opus.

LANGSAM. Slow.

LARGO. Slow and stately.

LEBHAF. Lively.

LEGATO. Literally "bound" together, i.e., smoothly.

LEGGIERO. Lightly.

LEITMOTIV. In Wagnerian and post-Wagnerian practice and parlance a motive of which dramatic use is made, it being associated with some personage or idea, and (with the adaptability of an india-rubber chameleon) appearing in various shapes and colourings when that personage or idea is to the fore. A Wagner music-drama score is, to a certain extent, an amazingly skilful mosaic of a limited number of such motives.

LENTO. Slow.

LIED (plural: Lieder). Song; songs. The great Lieder period begins with Schubert, from whose day onwards composers made innumerable lyric and dramatic settings of romantic poetry, with accompaniment for the newly improved pianoforte.

MADRIGAL. A late 16th and early 17th-century choral form, a capella and contrapuntal in style, probably most properly sung in one voice to a part. In Italy, Madrigals were composed at an earlier period than that just mentioned, which is, however, the date of the English madrigal and of the most active and finest production elsewhere than in England.

MAJOR SCALE. The scale C D E F G A B C or the same series of tones and semi-tones at any pitch of the eleven others possible. Thus there are twelve major scales possible on the piano (some of them with alternative names, e.g., the scale of C sharp, the scale of D flat, representing, if the piano were a perfect instrument, slightly different series of notes, called "Enharmonics" of one another).

MALAGUEÑA. A sort of Fandango, it has certain peculiar harmonic features.

MALINCONICO or CON MALINCONIA. Melancholically.

MÄSSIG. Moderate. Very moderately moved, i.e., not very quick.

MATTINATA. A morning song, e.g., under one's lady's window—a fancy title sometimes applied to short, bright instrumental compositions.

MAZURKA. A Polish dance, three-in-a-measure. Not so sensuous as the Waltz.

MODES. Those older scales which tended to disappear from the early 16th century onwards, and by the mid-17th had almost gone. They are now sometimes revived or drawn upon in a passing way by composers. Plain-song is in the modes—necessarily from its remote origin.

MODULATION. A change of key whilst the music is in progress.

MORCEAU. "Piece."

MORENDO. Dying away.

MOTIF. Any significant series of notes constituting a tiny unit and used (by repetition at various pitches, etc.) to contribute to the fabric of the music (see also Leitmotiv).

MOVEMENTS. Cyclic Forms. These forms (Suite, Sonata, Symphony, Concerto, the classical String Quartet, etc.) which consist of a number of separate and quasi-independent pieces or "movements," each in its own form, and all of them sufficiently in keeping to make good companions for one another, yet sufficiently contrasted in style, speed, etc., to avoid monotony. There is also a narrower use of the word, to denote works of several movements in which the same musical themes recur.

NACHTMUSIK. "Night Piece." Any piece with which the composer wishes the romantic feelings of night to be associated can be so entitled by him.

NOCTURNE. A term introduced by the Irish composer Field for a type of slow, romantic piano piece of the melody-plus-accompaniment order, the thing and the name then being taken over by Chopin. Other composers (e.g., Mozart) had used the word as the equivalent of "Serenade," etc.

NONET. A piece for nine voices or instruments, each with a separate "part."

OBBLIGATO. Literally "obliged." For instance, a song with piano accompaniment may have some sort of additional part for violin, and if this is essential to the composition it may be called a "Violin obbligato." But, by a perverse twist, the word is often given the opposite meaning, and applied to an optional additional part for violin, organ, or whatever it may be.

OFFERTOIRE. Music (organ or choral) suitable to be performed (a) during the offering of the elements at Mass, or (b) during the taking of the collection.

OPUS. Since the 18th century the custom has grown up amongst composers of labelling their works with consecutive numbers. Thus a man's Opus 1 is his first work (or the first he cares to bring before the public). Opus numbers are a means of identification of compositions to which no names have been given, and, in so far as the composer has observed an accurate consecutive numbering (which is not always done, unfortunately,) they give a clue to the period in a composer's career to which a particular composition belongs. A common abbreviation is "Op." and "Op. Post." means a posthumous work, i.e., one published after the composer's death.

"K. 456," etc., is a numeration applied solely to Mozart's works. The K. stands for one, Dr. Ludwig Ritter von Köchel, who, finding this composer's works in mad confusion, usefully worked out their chronology and cast them into a series. Sometimes the indicator is given as "K.V. 456," etc., the "V" meaning Verzeichnis, i.e., "list," "catalogue."

OVERTONES. There is practically no such thing in nature as a pure single note. Lift the dampers of the piano from the strings by depressing the right pedal, strike a low note hard and listen; in a moment a distinct effect will be heard of many higher notes also sounding. There is a reason why in the piano these are particularly noticeable, but every note of every instrument and of the voice has them. They run upwards from the "fundamental" note that generates them, as its octave, the fifth above that, the fourth above that and so on, the intervals between them diminishing as we ascend the harmonic series.

OVERTURE. An opening piece for a play, an opera, an oratorio, an instrumental suite. Overtures for independent performance are now often composed, i.e., Concert Overtures (e.g., those of Mendelssohn). In Bach's time the title "Overture" was sometimes applied to a suite as a whole; a piece so entitled began with a real overture, in the then standard overture form, and then had other pieces tacked on to it, for here the word really meant "Overture, etc." Indeed, the word has had a very varied use, but in every case a little historical knowledge will show that the idea of an "opening" is implicit somewhere.

PASSACAGLIA. Whatever the text-books and dictionaries may say, this, in practice, is indistinguishable from the Chaconne (q.v.).

PASSEPIED. Somewhat like the Minuet, but livelier.

PESANTE. Heavily.

PIACERE. At pleasure, as to pace, etc.

PIANISSIMO. Very softly.

PITCH. The notes of a key ranged in order of pitch, i.e., of what we conventionally call "height" and "depth."

PIZZICATO. Plucked with the fingers instead of bowed.

POLYPHONIC. The adjective form of POLYPHONY. Literally, "many voiced" music, i.e., music which consists of several strands, each with its own melodic interest and the whole fitting together in an effective combination.

PREGHIERA. "Prayer."

PRESTISSIMO. Very quick.

QUASI. As it were, almost.

RALLENTANDO. Gradually slowing down.

RECITATIVE. Song in a declamatory rhythm and style, often preceding an Aria.

REQUIEM. A Mass for the dead—Brahm's "German Requiem" being an exception, in that it is not a setting of the words of the Mass, whilst the Requiem of Delius is a still greater exception, being non-Christian in subject-matter.

RHAPSODY. An instrumental piece, generally of a rather ecstatic character. The term is especially associated with Liszt, who first popularised it.

RIGAUDON. An old Provençal dance, in two-in-a-measure or four-in-a-measure. The earlier examples are lively, the later often dignified. Rigadoon is the old English name.

RONDEAU; RONDO; RONDINO. A piece in RONDO FORM. A short piece in RONDO FORM.

RONDO FORM. A form in which one principal subject reappears several times with other matter interspersed.

ROUND. A form of short choral composition popular from the late 16th century onwards. It is really a canon in the unison or octave, in two or more parts, and so arranged that its end dovetails into its beginning, allowing of an indefinite number of continuous repetitions. The universally known "Three Blind Mice" is an ancient and typical simple example.

RUBATO. "Robbed time," i.e., certain notes are, in performance, hurried, and others slowed—not arbitrarily, of course, but for purposes of expression.

SALTERELLO. An Italian three-in-a-measure quick dance, with a leaping or hopping feature, often represented in the rhythm of the music. Not unlike the Tarantella in general style and feeling.

SCHERZO (Literally "joke"). Applied to a brilliant type of composition, often humorous, and especially to that movement which, from Beethoven onwards, often replaces the Minuet movement in the Symphony and Sonata, etc.

SCHNELL. Quick.

SCORE. A music copy that, unlike a mere "part," is complete in itself.

SENZA. Without.

SFORZANDO. The particular note or chord so marked to be "forced," i.e., strongly accented.

SONATA. The term properly means an instrumentally "sounded" piece, as distinct from a "sung" one (Sonata v. Cantata). Normally a Sonata is in several movements (like a Suite in this), but the Sonata's movements are, usually, not in dance style, as they were in the older suites. From Haydn and Mozart onwards we get the CLASSICAL SONATA, and in ordinary speech to-day this is what the word "Sonata" means.

SONATINA. A short Sonata—generally somewhat simpler and lighter in style.

SORDINO. A small apparatus placed over the bridge of the instrument; it induces a soft ethereal tone. A Mute or Damper.

STACCATO. Literally "detached," i.e., the notes played in a "cat-on-hot-bricks" style.

STÄNDCHEN. An evening song, in the sense of a short vocal instrumental composition.

SYMPHONY. Literally a "sounding together," so that at different periods various types of composition for several instruments have been called "Symphony." We even to-day sometimes hear the instrumental introduction to a song, etc., called the "Opening Symphony," recalling the former vague application of the term.

From the time of Haydn and Mozart onwards we get the CLASSICAL SYMPHONY, which is, in effect, the Classical Sonata in an orchestral clothing.

TARANTELLA. In the heel of Italy is Taranto, hence a certain spider common thereabouts is called the Tarantula; hence a disease supposed to be caused by its bite is called Tarantism; hence a certain dance supposed to cure the disease is called the Tarantella. The music of this last is in a rapid six-in-a-bar measure.

TEDESCA. The word is the Italian for "German." Sometimes it is attached to a piece in the style of the Allemande, and sometimes to one in the style of the German Waltz. Beethoven occasionally uses the word in the latter sense.

THEME. A tune or passage that forms a definite entity and constitutes an important item in the main material of a composition, e.g., one in Sonata Form.

TIMBRE. See HARMONICS.

TIMPANI (not "Tympani"), KETTLE-DRUMS. Copper basins covered with parchment, and tunable to particular notes. In the orchestra, up to and including the Haydn-Mozart period, two are employed, tuned to the Tonic and Dominant of the Key; after that period composers tend, on occasion, to score for more than two.

TONIC. The Key note. When we speak of the Tonic Key, we mean the chief key to the piece.

TREPAK. A two-in-a-measure dance, popular in Russia and Little Russia.

TUTTI. Literally "all." Used especially to describe a passage in a Concerto where, alternating with the innings of the solo instrument, the whole orchestra takes one.

VIBRATO. In string music an effect of slightly wavering pitch obtained by the motion of the fingers of the left hand as they stop the strings, equivalent to the vocalist's tremolo, but not usually objectionable. In vocal music a very rapid reiteration of the note instead of a steady holding of it; generally objectionable.

VILLANELLA. Properly a sort of light-hearted 16th-century Neapolitan madrigal, but modern composers sometimes use the term in a "fancy" way.

VIRGINALS. The early Harpsichord, shaped not like the Harpsichord proper, or the Spinnet, but like an oblong box (the strings, therefore, run in front of the player, instead of away from him).

VORSPIEL. A prelude or overture.

WHOLE-TONE SCALE. A scale of tones—no semitones. If experiments be made on the piano, it will be seen that it can really only exist at two pitches, or in two series—that beginning on C and that beginning on C sharp. Any other series is merely the same as one of these, but beginning on another note (compare Chromatic Scale).

WIEGENLIED. Cradle Song.

ZAPATEADO. A Spanish dance, three-in-a-measure, with a savagely fierce rhythm, marked by stamping (like a clog dance) instead of by the usual Spanish castanets.

ZIGEUNERLIED. Gipsy Song.

Hints on the care of your $33\frac{1}{3}$ r.p.m. Long Play records

Long Play records are high quality articles manufactured with extreme care, and owners of these records are well advised to observe the following points :

- 1 Do not handle the actual playing surface of the record. Slight grease can attract dust.
- 2 Before playing an LP record always wipe the surface with a smooth, soft damp cloth. A piece of linen soaked in plain water and then well wrung out, serves admirably. Do not use a dry cloth, brush or cleaning pad.
- 3 When extracting the record from its container, bow the container open as much as possible to prevent the surfaces being rubbed.
- 4 Keep records in an even, moderate temperature.
- 5 Records should be kept in an upright position, but ensure that they are kept pressed lightly together. A record leaning over can become warped.
- 6 When the record is not in use, keep it in its container and, generally, keep it out of the way of dust.
- 7 $33\frac{1}{3}$ and 45 r.p.m. records can only be used on instruments equipped for these speeds.

SCHUBERT, Franz Peter (1797–1828)—

Note.—It has been recognised for a long time that the Opus numbers applied to Schubert's works have little or no chronological significance. The order of the so called "post-humous" works being purely arbitrary or accidental. In 1951, Messrs. Dent published Otto Erich Deutsch's Schubert Thematic Catalogue, a definite work which will take its place as an authoritative guide to the composer's music, worthy to rank with Köchel's famous Mozart Verzeichnis. Deutsch lists 965 works in order of composition and 33 to which no date can be assigned. We have accordingly quoted the "Deutsch" number against the following works, as well as the Opus number.

- CHORALE PRELUDES (ORGAN) (J. S. Bach)—
 These works for Organ must not be confused with the harmonisation by Bach of hymn tunes of various composers for a church choir, to which the title Chorale was given.
 The Chorale Preludes are organ compositions based on the chorale of the same name. Bach left 90 of these works in five collections: (1) Orgelbüchlein; (2) Clavierübung, Vol. III; (3) Six Chorales, published by Schübler; (4) Variations on "Von Himmel hoch da komm ich her"; (5) "Eighteen" Chorale Preludes. Another 50, some doubtful in origin, have come down to us. In order to clarify the position, reference is made to the volume and number in the Peters edition.

Owing to the similarity of name, this composition is often attributed in error to Henry Purcell, the Elizabethan composer, or to his younger brother Edward. Actually it was written by Edward Purcell Cockram, who used his Christian names only when the song was published—

SLAVONIC DANCES (Dvořák) Nos. 1 to 8, Op. 46. Nos. 9 to 16, Op. 72.—

This set of dances was written for piano duet and later arranged for orchestra, the Number and Key corresponding, except in the cases of Nos. 3 and 6, when No. 3 (Piano) became No. 6 (Orch.) and No. 6 (Piano) became No. 3 (Orch.). Further, Kreisler transcribed three for the violin, re-numbering them 1, 2, 3, and in two cases transposing them into keys to suit the instrument. Considerable confusion has resulted, which we have endeavoured to straighten by listing all recordings under the original numbers and keys, with a note against the Kreisler transcriptions.

Du sagst mir

Gesegnet sei das Grün

Gesegnet sei durch die Welt

Geselle, woll'n wir uns

Heb' auf dein blondes Haupt

Heut' Nacht erhob ich mich

Hoffärtig seid Ihr

Ich esse nun mein Brot

Ich hab' in Penna

Ich liess mir sagen

Ihr seid die Allerschönste

Man sagt mir

Mein Liebster ist so klein

Mein Liebster singt

Mir ward gesagt

Nun lass uns Frieden schliessen

O wär' dein Haus

Ständchen Euch zu bringen

Sterb' ich, so hüllt

Und willst du deinen Liebsten

Was für ein Lied

Was soll der Zorn

Wenn du mich mit den Augen

Wenn du, mein Liebster

Wie lange schon

Wie soll ich fröhlich sein

Wie viele Zeit verlor ich

Wir haben beide

Wohl kenn' ich Euren Stand

BACH, J. S. (Unaccompanied Violin)

In Bach's day the six unaccompanied Violin Sonatas were so-called in accordance with the literal meaning of the word Sonata, i.e., they were "sounded" music, as opposed to Toccatas ("keyboard" music) and Cantatas ("sung" music.) It should be noted that Nos. 2, 4 and 6 are not in classical sonata form, but are Partitas (Suites made up of independent movements) Some editions preserve this distinction, giving the six works in two groups: three sonatas and three Partitas. The following table shows both groupings—

		(Sonata—S)	Partita—P)
Group 1	S 1	S 2	S 3	S 4	S 5	S 6
